For the Speedy and Permanent Cure of Seminal Weakness, Nocturnal and Diurnal Emissions, Nercous and General Debility, Impotence, and all Diseases arising from Solitary Habits, or Eccessive Indulgence.

THERE are thousands of Young Men, as well as Some extent from the above diseases. Many, perhaps, are not aware of their true condition, or when assistance is really needed.

The CELEBRATED NEW ENGLAND REMEDY FOR HABITUAL CONSTIPATION,

Jaundice, Fever and Ague, General Debility, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Stomach, Liver, or are not aware of their true condition, or when assistance is really needed.

For the benefit of such, we herewith give a few of the most common symptoms, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pain in the Head and Side, dimers of Sight, Dots and Webs before the Eges, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Loss of Memory. Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Aversion to Society, Self-Distrust, Timidity, etc. For each and all of the above symptoms these remedies will be found a "Sovereign Baim."

These remedies embrace three prescriptions: A box of Verile Tonic Pills, all of which have important offices to perorin, and should be used together in every case. Their superiority over other modes of treatment may be briefly stated as follows, viz:

IT They diminish the violence of sexual excitement.

N. They immediately arrest nocturnal and diurnal emissions.

They remove local weakness, causing the organs to assume their natural tone and vigor.

They strengthen the constitution by overcoming nervous debility and general weakness.

They enliven the spirits, which are usually depressed, by expelling all exciting causes from the system. system.

F By their invigorating properties they restore the patient to his natural health and vigor of manhood.

They cure when all other means have failed.
They contain no Mercury, no Opium, nor anything that can in any event prove injurious,
It They are easy and pleasent to use, and will not interfere with the patient's usual business or pleasure.

ire. They can be used without suspicion, or knowl-They can be used without suspicion, or knowledge of even a room-mate.

That they may come within the reach of all. we have fixed the price of the Pastels at $1 per box, and the Pills at 50 cents per box each. In ordering by mail, in addition to the price, twelve cents in stamps should be inclosed for return postage.

LADIES in want of a safe and effectual remedy for Irregularities, Suppression of the Meuses, or any disease, peculiar to their sex, should use Dr. Gates' Female Monthly Pills. Price by mail, $1 and one stamp.

CAUTION.—These Pills should not be used during pregnancy, as miscarriage will be the consequence.

FOR STATE SENATE-20TH DISTRCT, HON. THOMAS P. PORTER. OF WOODFORD.

CAPT. THOMAS STEELE. (Regular Election, first Monday in August.) SATURDAYAUGUST 3. 1861.

Who are the Disunionists? The disunionists, truly guilty of disloyalty to our government, the best when faithfully administered, ever.known among men, are those who persistently agitated the country with unconstitutional schemes. For some thirty years, the North has persistently, wantonly, wickedly disturbed the public tranquility by unwarranted, unconstitutional, unlawful, and disloyal intermeddling with the rights and peace of the South on questions over which the puritanical and perfidious Yankees had neither moral nor political jurisdiction. Such forbearance as the South displayed at their intolerable outrages, manifested in every form that ingenuity could invent, was never before shown, and evinced the earnestness and depth of Southern attachment to the Constitution and Union. But the irrepressibles were resolved to achieve their guilty object of the destruction of slavery, even if the government, the Constitution and the Union. were all irretrievably rained. Lincoln said the Union could not exist, half free and half slave States, but all must be free or all slave; and the war he is now waging, on pretense of sustaining the government, is really prosecuted for the incidental object of compulsory abolition of slavery. Seward emphatically subscribed the same fiendish, traitorous theo- for defraying the expenses of Government, ry. And the Northern pulpits, presses, ros- and maintaining the public credit. Some trums, and streets, are vocal with similar utterances. Facts, also, in the progress of the war, in spite of all hypocritica pretences to the contrary, go to prove the reality of the diabolical design. The peo ple of the South, in resisting unconstitu tional aggression, by withdrawing from faith less and perfidious Confederates, did but resist the principles of disunion sown broadcast in the north, and evince their own attachment to the principles of the Union. It is a mockery and a fraud to talk of preserving the Union without the guarantees of the Constitution. Has he restored the Union? Has he stopped the war? Has he given us peace, or even the hope of peace? Nothing of the kind; but, on the contrary, he has had passed a resolution, FOR REPRESENTATIVE OF FRANKLIN COUNTY, unjustly accusing the South with bringing on the war, and in effect requiring its prosecutions till the South be utterly sujugated; for no one knows better than he ought to know, that the restoration of the Government can never be effected by the ferocious and unconstitutional war waged by the Usurper against a free and brave people. All the fruits of Crittenden's vaunted statesmanship have turned to bitter ashes on the lips. We do not believe that he meant to practice delusion upon the people; but it is past all question that the people feel themselves deluded by their trust in his influence, his statesmanship, and his fitness for the place and time upon, which unfortunately for his country, as for his own fame, he has been cast. Henry Clay, had he been in the position of John J. Crittenden, would have stopped the wicked war by themoral force of his manly denunciation; and he would have had his right arm torn from his shoulder before he would have signed the declaration that the war was brought on by Southern disunionists. But history will fasten the crime on the parties truly guiltyon those whose unconstitutional aggressions, as the public once supposed were meant to be arrested by the amendments which were proposed, abandoned, and never renewed, by Mr. Crittenden himself.

Since the battle at Carthage, they have lost all their contempt for the "miscellaneous as termed the arms of the State men, and have evinced a disposition to get hold of all re-maining in the country. On Saturday night last, a company of thirty soldiers made a descent upon a neighborhood about five miles from town, rousing men, women, and children from their beds, and throwing every thing nto confusion, and searching, without scruple or delicacy, the apartments and beds of ladies young and old. The first house, or probably the second, searched, was reached without any knowledge upon the part of the occupants that troops were at hand; but by the time they had fairly begun their night's work, run every direction, notifying the people of the mischief going on. About daylight, they return ed to camp, having purloined some four or five old guns which were scarcely worth pack-

The battle of Carthage, of which I spoke just now, was fought by the State men with their old guns—some rifles, some shotguns, and some few old muskets. There is much dispute as to the number of killed on the Federal side. I saw a letter from a young man he stated, that being detailed to gather up the dead and wounded, he had counted nearly 200 Federals on the ground; and as the fight was a running one, for fourteen miles, he could scarcely have seen all. There were quite a number of Kentuckians in the fight, and from this county were Jas. McDowell, formerly of Mason county, Kentucky; a young man, Berry Gill, formerly of Mason county; an old man of 61 years of age, and John Graves, an old soldier of the war of 1812, and brother of the late Hon. W. J. Graves, of Louisville Indeed, our old men responded to Gov. McCullough. As to the plan of the campaign othing is now known; but it is well known that they are still gathering men and military equipments and supplies in the South, evident-y preparing to drive the invaders from the Our customers and the public will find our present

The news of the battle in Virginia created not worn a smile for the last month, gave evidence of the gratification the news caused damage sustained one to be easily repaired, and that it will serve to rouse the North to even greater efforts than they have made The killed, wounded, and missing, the Lincolnites say, are but a few hundred, and at most but little over a thousand; yet, even granting this, of what kind of stuff are Linoln's army made, which, after months of maneuvering to dislodge the Confederates pay. from Manassas, and weeks of heralding to the Feb. 19, 1861 tf. world how they were going to annihilate the rebels, run from the battle with inconsiderable loss, desert their batteries, baggage, and stores, and leave their extensive equipments

Certainly, if in every battle they intend to run from the field as soon as their men begin to fall, and scamper over the country like scared dogs, the day is far, very far distant, when the Stars and Stripes will wave from the Kennebec to the Rio Gande. But again if the battle resulted in a rout, if not an an nihilation of Lincoln's forces, what then? The army was made up of the very best Northern material. The most experienced men of the North were placed in command. The enthusiasm of officers and men was unbounded -all were sanguine of victory; and yet not only as good materials, provided with as good an equipment, still months must elapse before it is peculiarly suited. It will in a short time bring they can be put in as good drill, and even then the prestige of success is with the South. The confidence imparted by battles won is with the South-and the feelings by which feits. the Northern hordes will be influenced, will be different from those which influenced them before the battle of Manassas.

In regard to Missouri, it may be briefly said, that all men in the State service are now well armed. They are being drilled by efficient officers, and nothing is further from their thoughts than disbanding. The crops have been fine, and there is now in the State secure enough provision to maintain an army of 100,000 men for twelve months, over and above what is needed for home purposes. All is temporarily calm here, but all seem to realize that they are resting upon a volcano, whoes throes may at any time involve any and all in common ruin. Every indication warns us that we are nearing the time when Union men and States Rights men will meet as enemies, and the revolver and bowieknife be the only law. Neighboring, social, and religious intercourse, is even now restricted to those concurring in political sentiments; and as the Union men avail themselves of the presence of the troops to annoy the States rights men, by having their houses scarched, guns taken, &c., the calm cannot endure many months-if weeks.

defend, and protect the Constitution of the United States. Then, when he would hold others to a rigid responsibility for the discharge of their duties, high as he is, I enter here this day my solemn protest against his flagrant and repeated violations of the oath he took on the 4th of March last; against his dangerous usurpations of power and open defiance of law. I state as a member of this House, that the President has violated the Constitution of the United States by his pro-clamations of the 19th and 27th of April last, declaring a blockade of Southern ports.

It is one of the incidents of the war-making power to declare a blockade. It is an act of war, and Congress has alone the power to declare war. To quote from a distinguished Senator, the President of the United States has no more authority to declare a blockade of the southern ports of New Orleans and Charleston, than he has to declare the blockde of the northern ports of New York and Boston. He can no more blockade Mobile, sir, than he can blockade the port of Chicago, your own State. Need I, in a body of intelligent Representatives, quote authority for what I assert? Must I refer to men of learning who lived in days gone by? I might re-fer, then, back to 1832, when South Carolina concluding with a resolution that their arrest proposed to nullify an act of Congress. I ight refer to the declaration of the ablest man, in my judgment, who ever sat in the Senate—I mean Daniel Webster, of Massathen President, had no right to declare a blockade of the port of Charleston, for that right belonged exclusively to the Congress of the United States. He declared that the President could only act in accordance with the law, and that any act by him of that character would be a usurpation of power, and in derogation of the Constitution of the United States. Article one, section nine, clause five, of the Constitution, declares that no preferover those of another; yet the President of the United States, of his own motion, and without authority of law, shuts up ports still the theory of the Republican party and of the

The power to do that act is given to Congress in the ninth section of the Constitution. was resumed. It is amongst the powers enumerated as con-ferred upon Congress and Congress alone; and yet the President, by his orders, has conferred upon the Lieutenant-General the right to suspend the writ of habeas corpus, that great bulwark of the liberties of the people. I believe that it has only twice before been suspended in this country. It is a right which British Queen does not possess, nor would she dare attempt to exercise it; for, sir, it would revolutionize England. I believe that the writ of habeas corpus has not been suspended in England for two centuries.

And, besides all this, we have martial law in existence. Martial law is the will of the officer of the army in command. There has been a suspension of the civil authority heretofore unknown to our theory of government. There is no warrant for it to be found in the Constitution. It is not recognized by any law, nor has it ever before been recognized. We find that now martial law is declared; and upon the mere order of a commanding general, citizens are incarcerated in jail, and de-Run. prived of trial in the courts. The great writ of habeas corpus is denied to them. The ardson in reference to a conversation between President says that the denial of that writ has Gen. Scott and the President, as reported by

And, sir, I am called upon as one of the people's Representatives to ratify and indores that act. My conscience may not be very tender, but I am one of the Representatives to ratify and indores that act. The President has also violated that clause of the Constitution of the United States, except in consequence of appropriations by law. JACKSON, MISS., May 29, 1860, 7. R. MERWIN, 61 Market street, St. Louis, Mo., Advertising Agent for Heimstreet's Hair Restora-Averusing Agent for Heimstreet's Hair Restorative.

Dear Sir: The Medicines you introduced into our city last winter are all having a large sale, and giving in every case satisfaction. Mr. James Henderson (one of onr first citizens) says, that "he has used all of the Hair Dyes and Restoratives of the day, but has never used an article equal to Heimstreet's Inmitable Hair Restorative. That it street's inimitable Hair Restorative. That it far surpasses any preparation that he has ever tried for restoring the Hair of the bald and grey to its original luxuriance and beauty."

You can write the Proprietors, W. E. Hagan & Co., Troy, N. Y., that they have the cheapest and best Hair Restorative in our market, and that it gives satisfaction in every case.

BEFORE TAKING THE AFTER TAKING THE ELIXIR. DR. WRIGHT'S

CELEBRATED REJUVENATING ELIXIR!!

Prepared on the strictest Pharmaceutical principle by one of the ablest Chemists of the age. by one of the ablest Chemists of the age.

This is altogether a new medicine, the result of modern discoveries in the vegetable kingdom, being an entirely new and abstract method of cure, irrespective of all the old and worn-out systems published by accomplished quacks to the suffering. Dr. Wright, well knowing the deception practised upon the uninitiated, felt it his duty at once to have this Elixir tested by the whole Medical Faculty, who, without even one dissenting voice, have given in their adherence to its perfect and undivided control over the whole physical man when his frame has been reduced, and when all other medicines known to the Pharmacopæia have been tried in vain. Long thought, years of putient investigation, and a nil desperandum determination, have crowned the Doctor's efforts, and he now offers the Elixir to suffering humanity as the only thing that can cure the following diseases—namely:

GENERAL DEBILITY.

RESTLESSNESS AND SLEEPLESSNESS AT

ABSENCE OF MUSCULAR EFFICIENCY,
LOSS OF APPETITE,
DYSPEPSIA,
EMACIATION,
LOW SPIRITS,
DISORGANIZATIOM OF THE ORGANS OF GENERATION,
PALPITATION OF THE HEART,
And, in fact, all the concomitants of a nervous and debilitated state of the system.

As a Stimulant, It is quite different from alcoholic preparations. It is not subject to reactions in any shape; it continues to exert its influence, gradually and efficiently, as long as the least necessity exists for its presence.

As a Fernale Medicine,

As a Fernale Medicine,
It is equally powerful and effective, and restores the equilibrium sooner and safer than all the other medieines which for years have flooded the market, and which are only injurious, in place of assisting or renovating the constitution; for a very good reason too, that they are only made from the effusions of minds ignorant of the Medical profession altogether.

No Minerals!

Dr. Wright thinks it well to stake his professional character on the fact, that no minerals whatever form the least component parts of the ingredients in his Rejuvenating Elixir—well knowing what ruin has been entailed on the community by opium and erally, to the debilitated, Dr. Wright would say, energing. No matter how worn down you may no matter how weak you are—no matter what cause may have been—forsake at once whatever led you to depart from Hygienic principles—take Rejuvenating Elixir.

Rejuvenating Elixir.

And you will soon find yourself a new man—a pride instead of the reverse, to your friends, and a healthy, sound, and worthy member of the human family.

THE Manufacturers of this new and valuable preparation, beg leave to call the attention of Farmers and Graziers to this effectual remedy for destroying Ticks, Lice, and all other insects injurious to animals and vesetation, and preventing the alarming attacks of the Fly and Scab on Sheep.

Its use not only removes the vermin on animals, but cleanses and purifies the skin, thereby materially benefiting their general health, and greatly improving wool, both in quality and quantity.

This article completely supersedes that laborious and disagreeable work of preparation in your own buildings for Sheep-washing, as it is ready at all times, in any climate, and for all descriptions of Sheep, even for ewes in lamb, and can be furnished at a much reduced cost.

OFFICIAL.

Proclamation of the Governor.

Whereas, numerous applications have been made to me from many good citizens of this Commonwealth, praying me to issue a procla-mation forbidding the march of any forces of this or any other State or States over our soil, to make an apprehended attack upon the Federal forces at Cairo, in Illinois, or to disturb any otherwise the peaceful attitude of t Kentucky with reference to the deplorable war now waging between the United States and the Confederate States. And whereas, numerous applications from like good citizens of this Commonwealth have also been made to me, praying me to issue a proclamation forbidding the occupation of any post or place, or the march over our sacred soil by an force of the United States for any purpos And whereas, it is made fully evident, by every indication of public sentiment, that is the determined purpose of the good people of Kentucky to maintain, with courageous firmness, the fixed position of self-defense proposing or intending no invasion or agssion towards any other State or States forbidding the quartering of troops upon her soil by either of the hostile sections, but simply standing aloof from an unnatural, horrid and lamentable strife, for the existense of which Kentucky, neither by thought, word, nor act, is in any wise responsible whereas, the policy thus recommended by so many of my fellow citizens of all political leanings, is, in my judgment, wise, peaceful, safe, and honorable, and the most likely to preserve peace and amity between the neigh-bofing bordering States on both shores of the Ohio river, and protect Kentucky, generally from the ravages of a deplorable war. And whereas, the arms distributed to the "State Guard," composed as it is of gentlemen equally conscientious and honest, who entertain the opinions of both parties, are not to be used against the Federal Government nor the Confederate States, but to resist and prevent encroachments upon her soil, her rights, he honor, and her sovereignty by either of the belligerent parties, and to preserve the peace, safety, prosperity, and happiness and strict neutrality of her peopte, in the hope she may soon have an opportunity to become a suc-cessful mediator between them; and in order to remove the unfounded distrust and suspicions of purposes to force Kentucky out of the Union, at the point of the bayonet—which may have been strongly and wickedly engendered in the public mind in regard to my own posi-tion and that of the "State Guard," Now, therefore, I, BERIAH MAGOFFIN.

Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, and Commander-in-Chief of all her military forces, on land or water, have issued this my proclamation, hereby notifying and warning all other States, whether separate or united, and especially the "United States' and the "Confederate States," that I solemnly forbid any movement upon the soil of Ken tucky or the occupation of any port, post, or place whatever within the lawful boundary and jurisdiction of this State, by any of the forces under the orders of the States aforesaid, for any purpose whatever, until authorized by invitation or permission of the Legislative and Executive authorities of this State previously granted. I also hereby especi-ally and solemnly forbid all good citizens of this Commonwealth, whether incorporated in the "State Guard" or otherwise, making any war like or hostile demonstrations whatever agains any of the authorities aforesaid, earnestly re questing all citizens, civil and military, to be obedient hereto; to be obedient to the laws and lawful orders of both the civil and mili tary authorities; to remain when off military duty quietly and peaceably at their home pursuing their wonted lawful avocations; to refrain all words and acts likely to engender hot blood: and provoke collision; to pursue such a line of wise conduct as will promote peace and tranquility, and a sense of safety and security, and thus keep far away from our beloved land and people the deplorable ca-lamities of invasion; but at the same time earnestly counseling my fellow-citizens of Ken tucky to make prompt and efficient prepara-tions to assume the armor and attitude prescribed by the paramount and supreme of self-defense—and strictly of self-defense alone; praying Almighty God to have us evermore in us in peace, prosperity, and security for-

In testimony whereof, I have here-{ L. s. } unto set my name, and caused the seal of the Common wealth to be affixed. Done at Frankfort, this the 20th day of May, A. D. 1861, and in the 69th year of the Commonwealth.
